ISSUE 5: THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK OF BEAUTY

FAB 5: THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK OF BEAUTY

Vis-À-Vis The Salon

Shu Uemura and Vis-À-Vis now offer exclusive hair treatments fashioned after a Japanese tea ceremony. After a hot towel and green tea, clients choose from three 30-min. ceremonies to clarify or moisturize (plus a scalp massage). The "Art of Hair Ceremony" ends with exotic oils for luminosity, volume and silkiness. visavisthesalon.com.

Wax Atlanta

The stark but designer boutique-like setting of Wax Atlanta in Inman Park keeps the focus strictly on hair removal. Devotees are addicted to the baby-soft-skin results (estheticians use hard wax from Spain, followed with soothing organic oil blends) and routinely book their "full-body Brazilian" (Brazilian, legs, underarm and lip for $125). ##### Skin IQ Medspa offers one of the best anti-aging facials in town (combining microdermabrasion together with lactic/salicylic and enzyme peels, $125). She also stocks a bevy of cult favorite skincare lines like Mario Badescu. 404.277.0778.

Owner of Skin IQ in Buckhead, Lidia Nistor-

Woo Cosmetics

A visit to Woo Cosmetics, in Peachtree Battle Shopping Center, always feels like playing makeup with a best friend who happens to be Pat McGrath. Beauty junkies can scoop up best-sellers from Laura Mercier, Bobby Brown, YSL, etc. without a trip to the mall. 404.477.5000.

Muse Salon & Spa

Owner/stylist Daniel Jones heads to Paris often to bring back new trends to his Alpharetta salon. His latest find? A revolutionary smoothing system that infuses keratin deep into the hair cuticle eliminating 95 percent of frizz and curl. The $350 treatment lasts 3-5 months and is gentle enough for color-treated hair. Silky-smooth, shiny, blowout hair is the result.
